HALL OF FAME

Butler to induct eight

Six former student-athletes and two Special Service Award honorees have been selected for induction into the Butler University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Robert E. "Bob" Deitz (1941, basketball, tennis), James B. Doyle (1950, basketball, baseball), Lawrence J. Holmes (1937, football, track), Charles F. Maas (1949, basketball, baseball), Jerome C. Steiner (1940, basketball, baseball) and former Butler director of athletics William L. Sylvester (1950, football) will be inducted Jan. 30 at Hinkle Fieldhouse. The Special Service Award inductees are William F. Davis (1935, track) and the late Frank B. "Pop" Hedden (1931, football).

Reception, dinner and induction ceremonies will take place following the 4 p.m. Duquesne-Butler basketball game Jan. 30. Phone 283-9878 for reservations. The eight honorees join 30 members inducted last year as the Hall's inaugural class.
